MODERN TAILOR

Kravet Couture is taking a page from its origin story with its latest collection, Modern Tailor. Nearly a century ago, Samuel Kravet arrived in New York with an artisan craft – sewing – and began working as a tailor in the lower east side of Manhattan. From those humble beginnings came a thriving family business. Reflecting on where it all began, with a nod to fashion, Modern Tailor draws inspiration from the runway with a focus on bespoke tailoring techniques. Samuel Kravet's skilled artistry is mirrored in the exquisite details highlighted in this elegant collection. Finely stitched embroideries, pleated fabrics, patch-worked wools, cozy cable chenille and mélange knits are reinvented into luxurious fabrics relevant to layered decorating of today.

A modern interior scene featuring a colorful, patterned bench, a black lamp with a curved arm, and a wall with vertical stripes. The bench is upholstered in a vibrant, multi-colored zigzag pattern. The lamp has a sleek, curved metal arm and a black cylindrical shade. The wall behind the bench is covered in vertical stripes of varying shades of blue and grey. The floor is dark with a subtle pattern.

The BEAUTY lies in how the collection sits together;
much like how one would
STYLE an outfit.
